Dear Helen:

I know you must be wondering whether that minister is going to keep his word and send to you the wedding certificate and photo that he promised.

I found that the Church Book Store was out of the certificates I use and they have some on order and are expecting them in every day.

You can look to hearing from me within the next day or two. I was so glad to have the opportunity of meeting you and do earnestly pray that this all important step you have taken will prove to bring you the lasting joy and happiness I feel you so much deserve.

Remember me to that fine Dad of yours. You may be proud of him. He didn't say much but he certainly showed integrity and character and a ^{genuine} ~~genuine~~ love for his daughter.

Your will be hearing from me again.

Cordially,

Mrs. William Earl Irvine,
91 Main St.,
Westfield, Maine.

Dear Rev. Storey,

For long now I have planned to write to you to thank you for the pictures and to tell you I appreciate your letters to Thomas and to me.

Both of our mothers were happy that you gave us the pictures of the chapel - that helped them visualize the ceremony.

I hope to leave for Japan in March or perhaps even in February. Thomas is making arrangements for us to go through the ceremony again over there the day I arrive. We want to make our vows before his chaplain friend, Major Kinser.

Our proxy marriage will always be a lovely, happy memory for me because of your kindness and understanding. I am grateful that I found you to help me.

I shall certainly write you after I reach Japan.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Moulden

November 17, 1948

Dear Mr. Storey,

Your letter arrived a few days ago, and I was very happy to hear from you. I do appreciate your writing to me.

I cannot express the gratitude Nancy and I feel for the help you have given us. The guidance and encouragement you gave her were badly needed and saved the day for us. She wrote me of the advice you gave her. Be assured that we shall follow it to the best of our ability.

The Personnel Section here has given me no trouble at all. They have accepted my application for Nancy's transportation and tell me that she will be sailing in March or April, unless the shipping situation changes. That was good news, although it seems a dreadfully long time until then. This has been a long year.

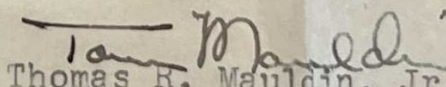

I plan for Nancy and I to be remarried on the day she arrives. We will probably drive up to Tokyo and be married at the GHQ Chapel. Chaplain (Major) David Winsler will marry us, if it can be arranged. I met him on the ship coming over. He is a very fine man and the most capable army chaplain I have ever met. Although I have not yet seen him, I understand he is now in Tokyo. I certainly hope he is available when Nancy arrives.

Many thanks for your congratulations and the compliment on Nancy. I consider myself more than fortunate to have won her. I wish I could be worthy of her. I'll just have to do the best I can.

I share your difficulties with this most uncooperative machine, the typewriter. Since being on this job, however, I can say that my improvement has been one hundred percent. I can now use two fingers instead of only one.

Once again, thank you for all the help you have given us and for your offer of more. If there is anything I can do for you out here in Japan, please let me know.

Yours very truly,

Thomas R. Mauldin, Jr.
First Lieutenant, Signal Corps

P.S. Nancy sent me the picture of your chapel. It is very beautiful.

APPOINTMENT OF PROXY

I, Thomas R.
